

Week 4 Reading Review Answer Keys

Theme Worksheet 1:

1. Betraying a friend also hurts you.
2. Be prepared.
3. Revenge hurts the avenger.

Theme Worksheet 2:

1. The theme of Rachel's story is to help others because one day you may need help. In other words, treat others the way you want to be treated.
2. Rachel did not want to help her friend because she already understood the lesson and the homework. Later, Rachel didn't understand the lesson and homework and wanted help from her friend. Her friend did not help Rachel because Rachel didn't want to help her friend when her friend didn't understand.

Theme Worksheet 3:

1. True: Hermes gave him shoes with wings. "Only fly over her when she is sleeping," he told Perseus, "and never look directly at the snakes on her head."
2. True: She had been put there to appease the sea nymphs, who were angry with Andromeda's mother for believing herself to be more beautiful than they.
3. False: "No weapon will touch you," Perseus said. "Instead, you will be preserved here forever to remind everyone of these events." And with that, Perseus held Medusa's head up to Phineus, who was turned immediately to stone.
